MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Administration

SUBJECT : Office of Personnel Report - Week Ending
20 February 1976

1. Minority Recruitment: As part of our efforts to increase our Black recruiting, Mr. [REDACTED] recruiter, will devote the week of 15-19 March to a series of Black career days at various institutions in his territory.

25X1A

2. Recruitment Brochure: The professional recruitment brochure is now being printed, and Printing Services Division has given us a target date of 1 March for completion.

3. Summer-Only: The master summer-only list of those being processed for appointment has been completed and was delivered to the Office of Security and Cover and Commercial Staff on 19 February.

4. Upward Mobility Training Costs: The Civil Service Commission Training Center contact called us to advise that the cost of training our Upward Mobility employees (disadvantaged) would be $5,000 -- the same as last year. A letter confirming this figure is to be sent to us.

5. Skills Session: The Office of Personnel's Skills Session on 18 February emphasized the handling of casualty and emergency cases. In attendance were 38 employees.

6. Retirement:

(1,350)	(2,400)	(2,700)	(3,200)	(3,700)	(4,300)

10. Savings Bond Drive: A meeting was held on 17 February 1976 with Keypersons from each Directorate who are to coordinate the Savings Bond Drive. The Drive will be held during the month of March, with emphasis being placed on purchase of bonds through payroll deduction. A rally to be attended by Bond Drive workers will be held in the Headquarters Auditorium on 1 March at 2:00 p.m. Mr. Gilbert Goff of the Treasury Department will be the guest speaker.

11. President's Cost Reduction Campaign: Outstanding results have been reported from the President's Cost Reduction Campaign. To date, 31 U. S. Government organizations have submitted over 1,100 cases for Presidential recognition involving almost 1,500 Federal personnel and almost $83 million in estimated first-year tangible benefits. President Ford has extended the Campaign through 5 May 1976. The Agency has made a most commendable showing in this program, as evidenced by the list of agencies having been singled out by the U. S. Civil Service Commission as achieving outstanding results.

COMING EVENTS:

1. Bicentennial Meeting: The Agency's Bicentennial Committee will meet on Friday, 20 February, to discuss contingency planning for an alternate processing site and to review drafts of an Employee Bulletin and a book dispatch on housing during the Bicentennial.

2. Annual Recruiters' Conference: The Administrative Officer, [redacted] has confirmed our reservations at [redacted] for the Annual Recruiters' Conference 13-17 September 1976.

(Signed) F. W. M. Janney
